- ★ Through leadership and mentoring, enable Warriors to return to duty or transition as proud Veterans into local communities

Helping Wounded Warriors Heal and Transition

As our Soldiers heal, they are also transitioning in several areas of their lives, to include their careers. Our medical experts and staff enable Soldiers to successfully transition back into the Army or into civilian life. Soldiers and staff meet regularly to set goals for success, and to take advantage of abundant resources to accomplish these goals, whether they stay in the Army or become Veterans in their communities.
